Introducing Clerkenwell London

A new space dedicated to enriching experiences, curated design and authentic stories

Clerkenwell London is the new leading destination for the discovery of niche and established designers, creatives and artisans. Showcasing a considered collection of hand-picked homewares, fashion, jewellery, stationery, art, music and literature, the 13,000sq ft space strives to promote the makers and craft behind the very best of timeless and contemporary creativity as well as provide a home for the very finest food, wine, events and experiences.

Celebrating innovation and craftsmanship across many industries, distilling the creative essence and historic ethos of the neighbourhood into a single unique space. Clerkenwell London builds upon the history of Clerkenwell as a creative hub, and the detail-obsessed heritage of the architects, watchmakers and other designers the area has attracted over the centuries.

CLERKENWELL LONDON

Home to 155 Bar & Kitchen and a warren of design-led conceptual rooms, Clerkenwell London aims to provide a haven to those wishing to savour good coffee, food and wine, discover and appreciate beautiful products in a place they can linger and enjoy for hours, while also offering a regular calendar of inspiring events and life-enhancing experiences. Unlike any other 'concept store' or design space in the UK, Clerkenwell London is, quite simply, a peerless and forward-thinking destination that has to be experienced to be understood.

“Is it a concept store? Is it a boutique? It’s not a department store and lifestyle store is too generic. With that said, Clerkenwell London defies categorisation - a refreshing new injection amid what can often seem an homogenous retail scene.”

Clerkenwell London Online

Clerkenwell-London.com is an online destination hosting a range of lifestyle content from the worlds of fashion, food, design, art and music. It is a reflection of the real-world store, promoting an edited product selection from almost 100 designers, telling their stories and revealing the magic behind the products they create.

With such a wide-ranging array of services available under one roof for the first time, Clerkenwell London is set to transform the retail and entertainment landscape of London’s most creative quarter.

Design

Representing a curated range of established, rising and niche designers – united by their passion for detail and power of storytelling – the store’s product selections include furniture, tableware and blankets from by Andreas Engesvik; ornamental glassware from Czech studio Dechem; ornate, hand-painted backgammon sets from Alexandra Llewellyn; Shaker-style furniture from British woodworkers Another Country; and geometric tableware from Ewelina Wisniosvka.

Womenswear Fashion

Focusing on designers producing considered, contemporary pieces that transcend age, gender and season, the rails of Clerkenwell London feature a combination of emerging talents and established brands, including Stutterheim, Zoe Jordan and Hannibal.

Alongside highest-quality menswear, womenswear, eyewear and accessories, the store is home to an ever-changing collection of handmade jewellery crafted by the likes of Loxley London, Nasha Mekraksavanich and Coops London, alongside watches from the likes of AARK Collective. From the clean-cut and contemporary to the darkly eclectic, each piece is designed to inspire.

Synesthesia

The on-site perfumery is a multisensory experience, including Clerkenwell London’s premium perfume, body care, shower and scented candle range, Synesthesia. Inspired by the condition of the same name, whereby one stimulation of one sense triggers a sensation in another, the range includes 10 expertly blended gender-neutral fragrances.

Menswear and Personal Tailoring

Evoking the sharp-dressed world of Mad Men, the menswear room hosts contemporary gents' fashion and accessories alongside an appointment-only personal tailoring service with in-house tailor David Newell.

The service offers premium quality, a brand new fabric book, updated cuts and comprehensive made-to-measure suiting that guarantees the perfect fit, cut and finish. David is currently working on his new ready-to-wear range, and Clerkenwell London is soon to launch its own-brand take on contemporary gentlemen's ready-to-wear attire.

Vinyl Lounge

The Vinyl Lounge is dedicated to the appreciation of music in its original format. Here, you'll find a collector's fantasy of rare and classic vinyl – and a relaxing room to hear it in, with a carefully curated soundtrack put together by Playlister. The Lounge will be at the centre of a series of music-focused events running from October onwards.

Wine Library

In a dedicated, library-like chamber, artisanal wines from both classic and emerging regions are filed by colour, origin and vintage. Although the resident sommeliers adore the old-world excellence of heritage-rich, traditional appellations, they are also always looking for the innovative and the new. Tasting experiences feature down-to-earth, charismatic speakers, carefully selected wines and British bistro food from 155 Bar & Kitchen. Both impromptu and booked tastings take guests – whether wine-worldly or newly initiated – through the traditional foundations of wine culture, then turn it on its head with pioneering new ideas.

Food

A space for dining, drinking and lingering, 155 Bar & Kitchen is an elegant and contemporary bistro, showcasing gastronomic expertise from the first coffee of the day to the last cocktail of the night. Designed in neutral tones and tiles by local studio BarberOsgerby, the interior channels the landscape, heritage and personality of London into a refined bistro setting. Trained at Jamie Oliver's Fifteen and fresh from wowing diners at Bonnie Gull, head chef Gavin Gordon has crafted an adventurous and balanced menu of inventive, flavour-packed dishes with culinary influences from Britain and beyond, washed down with expert recommendations from a hand-picked range of wines and craft beers. After hours, watch expert cocktail making, from well-mastered classics to inventive house creations. There is also The Coterie – a private dining room for special-occasion meals and functions.

Events and Experiences

Tucked away inside the venue is a large, adaptable event space equipped with a baby grand piano, ideal for networking and training sessions, meetings and drinks receptions, small-scale conferences and launches. The space is also already being used to host a busy calendar of educational events and personal services, including wine and chocolate tastings, whisky and gin journeys, cocktail-making master-classes and vinyl exploration sessions.

NOTES TO EDITORS

ABOUT CLERKENWELL LONDON

Clerkenwell London is a unique design space, restaurant, café-bar and all-round events and experiences venue. It began life as gallery store The Clerkenwell Collection, but has undergone a complete refurbishment and expansion, emerging as a one-of-kind location to discover talent from designer-makers and visionary brands across a spectrum of creative fields.

FOUNDERS

Clerkenwell London has been created by serial entrepreneur David J Brown, the co-founder and CEO of what is now Europe's third-largest tech company, Ve Interactive. He has over a decade of experience spearheading digital businesses, but as a classical pianist and fine-wine enthusiast, David also has a passion for tactile, physical experiences of the highest quality.

Day to day, the company is managed by CEO Sandra Truesdale, a performance-marketing specialist with a longstanding background in IT and Finance.
